Committed to Excellence in Faith in Education in Service

The spread of the Coronavirus has created economic uncertainty and distress for many of our Catholic School families. Bishop Jaime Soto has asked the faithful of the Diocese of Sacramento to remember in their prayers all those afflicted by COVID-19, their families, and all caregivers. We are also reminded that our school communities are reliant on your continued generosity. During this challenging time in the life of the Church, please consider an online gift to your local school.

La propagación del coronavirus ha creado incertidumbre económica y angustia para muchas de nuestras familias de la escuela católica. El obispo Jaime Soto ha pedido a los fieles de la Diócesis de Sacramento que recuerden en sus oraciones a todos los afectados por COVID-19, sus familias y todos los cuidadores. También se nos recuerda que nuestras comunidades escolares dependen de su generosidad continua. Durante este momento difícil en la vida de la Iglesia, considere un regalo en línea para su escuela local.

Fourth Sunday of Easter (A)

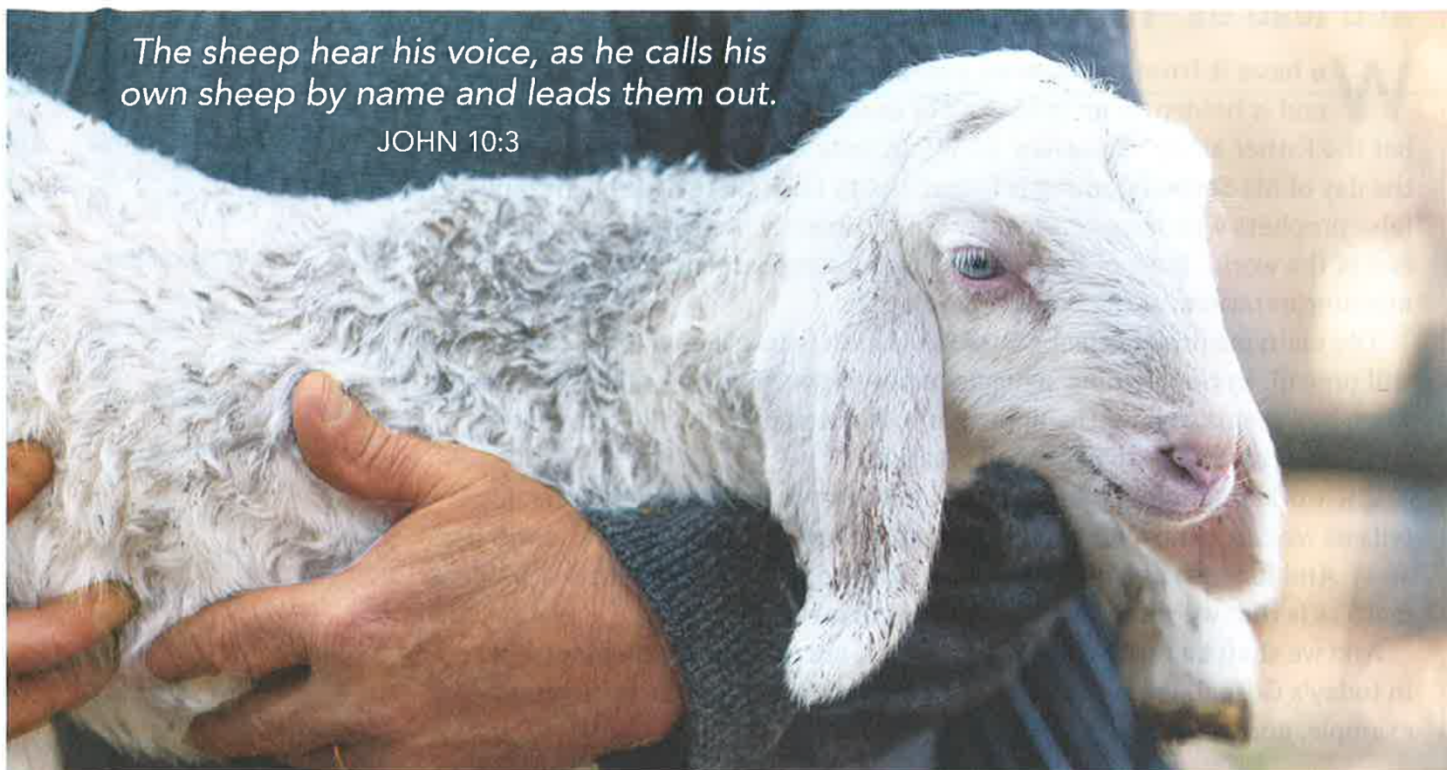

Acts 2:14a, 36–41

1 Pt 2:20b–25

Jn 10:1–10

The sheep hear his voice, as he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out.

JOHN 10:3

SPETENFASHUTTERSTOCK

Matters of Life and Death

Sheep are a lot smarter than some people think. They recognize the voice of their particular shepherd and follow that voice alone. However, that is not the point of Jesus' teaching today. Because most of us don't raise sheep or know much about them, we don't realize that the situation described in the Gospel passage is a matter of life and death.

It's similar to the relationship between a military squad leader and the troops he leads, another life-and-death matter. In both, unquestioning obedience is required, and absolute trust in the other is presumed.

That's what Jesus is describing. He's suggesting: "Listen to me. Follow my lead. Trust in me. I want only what is good for you, so I will be your sure protection."

It sounds so easy, as parables and metaphors usually do. What does it mean to follow this Shepherd? In the first reading, Peter announces the answer in one word: "Repent!" There is that challenging word—the word we might associate with Lent, not with Easter. If we do so, we miss the point of following the Shepherd, for to follow him means to be like him. It means: "Repent! Stop taking advantage of other people. Open your minds and hearts to newcomers. Respect those who observe different religious traditions. Help those less fortunate than you." All of this is captured in the final words of the Gospel reading: do what you can so that all "might have life and have it more abundantly" (John 10:10). Clearly, that's smart.

—Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

FOR Reflection

- ★ On what path might the Shepherd be leading you?
- ★ In what area is he calling you to repent?

Dear Padre,

How will it happen that Jesus will come again and lead us “through the gates”?

We have it from the best of authorities that the date of the world’s end is hidden. Jesus said, “But of that day and hour no one knows... but the Father alone” (Matthew 24:36). In spite of Christ’s admonition that the day of his Second Coming is known but to God, there have been countless false prophets who have confidently but incorrectly predicted a date for the end of the world. Most of these foolish forecasters based their claims on misinterpretations of the Book of Revelation.

The main purpose of the Book of Revelation is to assure us that God’s power will prevail. In the ongoing struggle between good and evil, there are times when evil seems to have the upper hand. No matter. Evil will be conquered and God’s rule will extend over all creation.

The world might end tomorrow, or next year, or in five billion years. Jesus tells us we can’t know for sure. We are sure, however, that this world will pass away. And for each one of us the world will end at the moment of death. What matters is that we should always be ready to meet Christ.

And we shall be ready if we follow Christ, our Shepherd, whom we meet in today’s Gospel. Jesus leads us safely through this life by his teaching, his example, and his grace.

—Fr. Oscar Lukefahr, CM
Sundaybulletin@Liguori.org

MURATA/SHUTTERSTOCK

A WORD FROM Pope Francis

We should never forget: the Church is not a static reality, inert, an end in herself, but is on a continual journey through history, towards that ultimate and marvelous end that is the kingdom of heaven, of which the Church on earth is the seed and the beginning.
